

Performance Prizes_Call for Application For M.Sc. Economics Students

The Department of Economics and Finance has set aside two prizes of up to 1000 euros each for students of M.Sc. program in Economics regularly enrolled, to reimburse documented expenses to enhance their knowledge in economics.

To benefit from the funds, students have to submit a one-page project description explaining in detail how they wish to use the money and how it will help them to enhance their knowledge.

Examples of expenses are summer school, internships, conferences, dataset, and startups.

Only expenses incurred before completion of M.Sc. program will be considered.

Interested students should fill in the form attached and send it to msc_economics@economia.uniroma2.it and in cc to segreteria@def.uniroma2.it by 1 April 2017, entering the following heading in the subject field "Economics-application for performance prizes".
