INFORMATION NOTE: According to the rules of The Erasmus Guidelines on how to use the Learning Agreement for Studies: "It is not compulsory to circulate papers with original signatures; scanned copies of signatures or digital signatures may be accepted, depending on the national legislation or institutional regulations".

The digital signature is totally legal in Spain and it can be authenticated and verified through legal administrative procedures (https://verificarfirma.ual.es/verificarfirma/). For that reason and after the implementation of our new online platform, UMove, from the academic course 2016/17, all the documents related to our Exchange Students will only be digitally signed and they will be available to download by the students directly from the platform.
