

Jan Grabowski is a Professor of History at the University of Ottawa and an invited professor at universities in France, Israel, Poland and in the United States. His interests focus on the Holocaust in Poland and, more specifically, on the relations between Jews and Poles during the war. He has authored and edited numerous books and articles in English, French, Polish, German, Hebrew and Czech. Professor Grabowski's book: Hunt for the Jews. Betrayal and Murder in German-Occupied Poland has been awarded the Yad Vashem International Book Prize for 2014. In 2011 Dr. Grabowski has been appointed the Baron Friedrich Carl von Oppenheim Chair for the Study of Racism, Antisemitism, and the Holocaust at Yad Vashem, Jerusalem, Israel. In 2016-17 Grabowski was the Ina Levine Senior Invitational Scholar in the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC. In 2020 Grabowski has been appointed a Distinguished Fellow at the Institut für Zeitgeschichte in Munich, Germany. His recent work: Night Without End. Fate of Jews in selected counties of occupied Poland, 2 vols. (Jan Grabowski and Barbara Engelking, editors and co-authors), has been published in April 2018, in Warsaw, in Polish. His most recent book "On Duty. The Role of the Polish "Blue" Police in the Holocaust" ("Na Posterunku. Udział Polskiej Policji Granatowej i kryminalnej w Zagładzie Żydów", Czarne Publishing House), has been published in Poland, in March 2020.
