

Short Bio:

Dr. Giulia Perrone graduated in Law with a master's degree at "Sapienza" University of Rome and specializes in Criminology with a II level University Master in Criminology-Investigation-Security-Intelligence at "Sapienza" University of Rome. Dr. Giulia Perrone, who began working as an assistant for Professor Gemma Marotta, Professor of Criminology and Sociology of Deviance Department at "Sapienza" University of Rome, became "Cultore della Materia" on the subject of Criminology in the academic year 2018/2019, and today she is an expert on the subject of Anthropology (cultural, legal, criminal and forensic) at the Faculty of Law of "Sapienza" University of Rome.

After passing the public selection, Dr. Giulia Perrone became a "Clinical Criminologist Expert" at the Tuscany / Umbria Penitentiary Administration Department for prison observation and treatment. Today she works as a "Clinical Criminologist Expert" at "Sollicciano" penitentiary in Florence. Dr. Giulia Perrone is a teacher of the Master in Criminology and co-creator of the first Master in Cyber Criminology in Italy for "Unid Professional", as well as teacher of Criminology in the training course of the National Mediation Chamber.

Parallel to her career in Criminology, Dr. Giulia Perrone also worked as a trainee lawyer in Criminal Law from 2017 to 2020, passing the bar as a Criminal Lawyer in October 2020.

Dr. Giulia Perrone, expert in the field of Cyber Criminology, is the co-author of the monograph "Cyber-odio: normativa, analisi criminologica e rimedi" (Cyber-hate: legislation, criminological analysis and remedies) and was invited as a speaker at TEDx in Ferrara, in September 2020, to talk about cyber bullying and revenge porn. Dr. Giulia Perrone is also involved in research in the field of criminology and is co-director of the research project "Educating to Emotions" at "Rebibbia" penitentiary in Rome.

Social Link:

www.consulenzecriminologiche.com

www.linkedin.com/in/giulia-perrone

www.instagram.com/giuliaperrone_conscrim_