

Professor Kamil Zajączkowski - Director of the Center of European Studies (Centrum Europejskie) at the University of Warsaw in the 2020-2024 and 2024-2028 terms (previously in 2016-2020, deputy director of the CE UW for scientific research and international cooperation). His research interests focus on the following problems: EU foreign policy, the role and position of the EU in the world (especially its relations with the countries of Sub-Saharan Africa, Latin America and Asia), development aid. Author of several dozen scientific publications on this topic, including the author of the monograph: Civil missions and military operations of the European Union in the perspective of selected theories of international relations and European integration, co-author of the monograph: Economic potential and development opportunities of Africa. Polish perspective, co-editor of several collective Works. He participated in international research projects (including manager of the five projects under grants from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland). He lectured at European and Asian universities, including: at: Institute of Political Science in Paris, Institute of Political Science of the University of Vienna and Istanbul, Airlangga University (Indonesia), Universitas Gadjah Mada (Indonesia), Xiamen University (China). He is a member of numerous scientific societies (Polish Society for European Community Research, Polish Society for European Studies, Polish Africanist Society, Polish Society for International Studies) and scientific councils of journals ("Calcutta Historical Journal", "Journal of Economics and Management Research" University of Latvia; " Marmara Üniversitesi Siyasal Bilimler Dergisi / Marmara University Journal of Political Science"; "Online Journal Modeling the New Europe", Faculty of European Studies Babes-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca, Romania). Regular commentator on international affairs on radio and television.