

Dr. Francesco Tava is Associate Professor of Philosophy in the Department of Social Sciences at the University of the West of England (Bristol, UK). Since the completion of his PhD in 2012, he held several research positions at the Institute of Philosophy of KU Leuven (Belgium), the Czech Academy of Sciences (Prague, Czech Republic) and the University of Milan (Italy). Dr Tava's main research interests lie at the intersection between political philosophy, phenomenology, and applied ethics. He is currently working on several interdisciplinary research projects focusing on the construction of European solidarity, ethical models of data access and governance, the political impact of digital transformation, and the groundwork of critical humanities.
