

Domenico Rosa is Head of Unit, dealing with Strategic Partnerships with Africa and OACPS, in the European Commission's Directorate General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA). He has led the Post-Cotonou Taskforce which was in charge of the negotiations resulting in the Samoa Agreement between the European Union (EU) and the Organisation of African, Caribbean and Pacific States (OACPS), signed in Apia in November 2023. He previously served as a senior advisor in the cabinet of Commissioner Piebalgs (2012-14) and was a member of the cabinet for development and humanitarian aid of Commissioners Michel and De Gucht (2006-10). He holds a Master's degree in Economics and Political Economy (Bocconi University, Milan) and in International Politics (ULB, Brussels) and a degree in Psychology (University of Padua, Italy).