

I am an OSINT investigator with a specialization in geolocation analysis. Currently, I work for the Centre for Information Resilience (CIR), an independent, non-profit social enterprise dedicated to exposing human rights abuses and war crimes. I have obtained my MA in Intelligence, Security, and Strategic Studies (IMSISS), and I am a former Global Governance student from the class of 2021.