

Bio Andrea Granata:

Andrea Granata is one of the two Youth Delegates of Italy to the United Nations. He has a Master's Degree in International Relations, with a Major in Diplomacy. He is a youth worker in the fields of youth empowerment and international affairs as Board of Director Member of an NGO with ECOSOC consultative status and as Young European Ambassador for the EU Neighbours East program, and was a Member of the Youth Delegation of the Council of Europe at its 10th World Forum for Democracy. He previously worked as intern at the Embassy of Italy in Singapore and at the Department of Youth Policies of the Italian Presidency of the Council of Ministers.

Bio Chiara Gisinti:

Chiara Gisinti is one of the two Youth Delegates of Italy to the United Nations. She is finalizing her Master's degree in Law, after graduating in Legal Interpreting and Translation and having completed an executive master in Leadership for International Relations. She previously worked as a legal trainee at the Council of Europe Liaison Office to the European Union and was also involved in the European Solidarity Corps.