1 word for university - why study university?

Why you chose global governance?

English courses in Italy

interdisciplinarity

they accepted me first the globe needs better governance

multidisciplinary

Interdisciplinary course

interdisciplinarity

multi-disciplinarity and a lot of extra activities

Interesting program and good professors.

Why you chose global governance?

Original course for the cooperation, interdisciplinarity

english bachelor degree

It was and still is very compatible with my values and what I like values

lots of choices for your future interdisciplinary and leaning towards science and tech

International and multicultural environment

Because of its interdisciplinarity, I hope it will help me to discover what I am really passionate about

Why you chose global governance?

because it unified my multiples intrests interdisciplinarity and particular courses

Interdisciplinary and location

multidisciplinary

have a more open-minded view of the world around me

Because with the normal italian courses I had a more uncertain future

Become a world transformer through making changes

Good master degree opportunities because it was the only programme here in rome that gave me the chance to be in contact with lost of people from differnet parts of the world that satisfied me. besides it was in english so it permitted me to study other languages while being enrolle

Why you chose global governance?

Team work

I liked how different it was.

Connected to political science

Interdisciplinarity

to gain the knowledge in a different and not orthodox way to have a unique approach

Was interested in the Social diversity, and peers with different backgrounds .

English course and interesting approach to the world

It was the only course I found giving me the possibility to diversificate in disciplines. I saw an opportunity in the gg conversations to be held to widen my views

Why you chose global governance?

To acquire the necessary skills to identify problems in my society and know how people from different backgrounds approach them.

We have one year before deciding our major. So we can discover what we love the most

I have several interests and I found in GG's multidisciplinary a way to discover more in different fields and satisfy my curiosity

Interdisciplinarity, course in English and cooperative environment for the career that it can give me

I think it is the only course which can make me become the person I want to be more than just learning notions
