

Global History, A.Y. 2026-2027
Group presentations schedule

Day 1, October 8 (Thursday): 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Room: S9

Group Number	Presentation Title (tentative)	Students
1	Chernobyl 1986: Between Soviet Propaganda and the Italian and West German Reactions	Gabriella Borgogni Irina Mukha Charlotte Illing
2	The US Moon Landing Resonance among the International Opinion	Valerio Ramaccia Aslısu Cantürk Luca Palka
3	Sputnik 1: The Space Race between the US and the USSR	Cecilia Morgia Akboti Otebayeva Emma Winkelmann

Day 2, October 12 (Monday): 11 a.m.-13 p.m., Room: S9

Group Number	Presentation Title (tentative)	Students
4	China's "Two Bombs, One Satellite" Project	Peter Schloms Delfin Doğan Arina Kholostenko
5	"Atoms for Peace:" the Propaganda of the "Good" Atom by the USA and Its Impact on Cold War Dynamics	Théa Honda Irene De Domenico Lorenzo Zorzi
6	The Aswan High Dam: Between Anti-imperialism and Socialist Brotherhood	Darina Belyashova Tanjima Jahan Labonno Oussama Bouraoui
7	The Dialectics of US-Iran Nuclear Relations: Dual-Use Technology, Asymmetric Coercion, and Strategic Stability	Aurora Mariarita Conte Monique Els Aleksandra Dundekova

Day 3, October 13 (Tuesday): 14-15 p.m., Room: P11

Group Number	Presentation Title (tentative)	Students
8	Allegations of Biological Warfare in the Korean War: An Instrument of Communist Propaganda	Sofia Termine Lorenzo Mattia Franceschi Giulia Panzironi
9	How Did the Shinkansen Turn Japan's Peaceful Technology into Cold War Propaganda?	Diletta Gambirasi Assem Dyussebekova Edoardo Ceccatelli