

GLOBAL HISTORY, A.Y. 2025-2026

Individual Presentations

Dr. Raimondo M. Neironi

⇒ Please use this form to indicate which reading you would like to pick for your presentation.

- The lecturer needs to have one student only presenting one reading. Should more than one student go for the same reading, he will need to sort it out together, by changing your choices.
- To enable the one student/one reading policy, the lecturer has provided up to 50 readings, which each student can choose from.

⇒ Some info on timing and composition of the presentations:

Day 1	(October 9 th , 2025)	8 students
Day 2	(October 14 th , 2025)	9 students
Day 3	(October 15 th , 2025)	9 students
Day 4	(October 16 th , 2025)	12 students

- The presentations will be allocated to each day following the order of the readings in the reading list (reported below).

As there are more readings than slots (to give you more choice), the lecturer cannot tell already when a specific reading will be presented. You can roughly work it out as the students pick up the readings.

⇒ This form must be returned duly filled to the lecturer (raimondo.neironi@gmail.com) by Sunday, October 5th, 2025 (23:59):

- The form must indicate student's first and last name and his/her related reading choice.
- It will be emailed to the lecturer by class representatives (Ms Maya Pandit).
