

Materiale didattico is very poorly organized. sorry.

The section "Behavioral" is for another course and not your problem.

The Notes correspond to lectures as follows

Lecture 1 = Solownote

Lecture 2 = Solow

Lecture 3 = Ramsey Cass Koopmans

Lecture 4 = Ramsey Cass Koopmans with optimal control

Class 5 = exercise session (done on the spot then posted)

Lecture 6 = Romer 86

Lecture 7 = human capital

Lecture 8 = Romer 90

Class 9 = exercise session (done on the spot then posted)

Lecture 10 = Consumption

Lecture 11 = Consumption II precautionary saving and consumption CAPM

Lecture 12 = OLG

class 13 = exercise session (done on the spot then posted)

Lecture 14 = what I think about consumption

Lecture 15 = Q Model of Investment

Lecture 16 = Q Model 2 applications to taxes

Lecture 17 inventory investment & what I think about investment class 18 exercises and review.