

CLICI – Italian language courses from October to December 2019

The CLICI – Centre for Italian language and culture of the University of Rome Tor Vergata organizes extensive Italian language courses (60 hours) for foreigners from 14th October to 20th December 2019.

Lessons will be held twice a week, from 5 pm to 8 pm.

Courses are free for students enrolled at the University of Rome Tor Vergata.

All information on the enrolment procedure is available at <http://clici.uniroma2.it>.

Registration opening: 15th July 2019. Registration deadline: 21st September 2019.

- Students who are absolute beginners in Italian language are requested to register on CLICI's platform without taking the placement test.
- Students who are not beginners are requested to register on CLICI's platform and to take the placement test on one of the following dates:

September 11th, 17th, 19th, 23rd, 25th, 2019

October 1st, 2019

It is possible to register up to 7 days before the chosen exam date.

The placement test will be held at Scuola IaD – Macroarea di Scienze MM.FF.NN. – Via del Fontanile di Carcaricola snc (<http://www.scuolaiad.it/dovesiamo>).

- Students who attended one of CLICI's Italian language classes in the period March-May 2019 and received the certificate of attendance/final grade certificate are not required to take the placement test and they can enroll by sending an email to info.linguaitaliana@uniroma2.it, from 15th July to 21st September 2019, indicating the name of the teacher and the level of the course they attended. Therefore, they are not required to register on CLICI's platform. Otherwise, if they want to take the placement test, they have to follow the above procedure for non-beginners.
