Education

- 2003 Engineering Doctorate (EngD), University of Warwick, Coventry, UK. The research focused on analyzing and modeling different approaches to managing complex supply chains through five case studies with major organizations including British Airways, Ford, and British Midlands (BMI).
- 1997 MSc in Engineering Business Management (with distinction), University of Warwick, Coventry, UK; A Study of a Multi-Modal Control Mechanism for Optimizing Manufacturing Resources, with Particular Reference to their Impact on the Supply Chain.
- 1994 BEng Industrial Engineering, Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City, Mexico
Dissertation: Theory of Constraints: A tool for improving efficiency and effectiveness.

Academic Positions

- 2012 Reader in Procurement and Supply Management, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield UK
- 2011 Senior Lecturer (Associate Professor), Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield UK
- 2004 Senior Research Fellow (Assistant Professor), Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield UK
- 2001 Senior Research Fellow (Assistant Professor), University of Warwick, Coventry, UK
- 1998 Research Engineer, University of Warwick, Coventry, UK

Appointments

- 2011 – date Director of the Centre for Strategic Procurement and Supply Management, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK
- 2011 – date Course Director, Leading Procurement Strategy, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK
- 2008 – 2010 Course Director, Supply Chain Toolbox, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK
- 2009 – 2013 Executive Doctorate Cohort Leader, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK
- 2005 – 2012 Engineering Doctorate programme manager, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK
- 2005 – 2009 Researcher Representative, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK

Visiting Appointments

- 2013 - date Visiting Scholar/Lecturer, Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina (contributing to the UNC-Tsinghua Global Supply Chain Leaders Program)
- 2013 – date External Examiner, Heriot Watt University, Edinburgh (MSc in Logistics and Supply Chain Management and MSc in Maritime Logistics and Supply Chain Management)
- 2005 – 2013 Visiting Scholar, Durham University, Supply Chain Management
- 2005 – date Visiting Scholar, Copenhagen Business School, Operations Management
- 2004 – date Visiting Scholar, University of Warwick, Supply Chain Management

Training and Personal Development

- 2014 Media Training, Cranfield School of Management, Cranfield, UK.
- 2012 International Teachers Programme, HEC Paris, Jouy-en-Josas, France
- 2011 Writing Cases, IMD, Lausanne (ECCH)
- 2011 Teaching with Cases, IMD, Lausanne (ECCH)
- 2010 Winning Hearts and Minds: Storytelling for Professional Managers, Cranfield SoM, Cranfield, UK.
- 2009 Post Graduate Certificate in Teaching and Learning in Higher Education, Cranfield University; Cranfield, UK

Awards, Scholarships and Fellowships

- Finalist for the 2013 Harold E. Fearon Best Paper Award for “Towards a Theory of Multi-tier Supply Chain Management”, Journal of Supply Chain Management.
- Student Lead Teaching Awards (Cranfield Student Association) – Most Engaging Professor 2013-14
- Award for Innovation in Teaching – Cranfield School of Management 2013
- Emerald Outstanding Paper Award for “The Impact of Global Sourcing on Supply Chain Risk” (2011), Supply Chain Management: An International Journal, 16(2) 67-81.
- Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CILT) – since 2014
- Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply (CIPS) - since 2013
- Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (HEA) – since 2007
- Warwick University Doctoral Scholarship (1998 – 2002)
- Doctoral Scholarship from the Mexican Council of Science and Technology (Conacyt) (1998 – 2002)
- Scholarship from the Mexican Central Bank (1996-97)

Research

My research interests lie in the general field of procurement and supply chain management, specifically around two interrelated phenomena: risk and sustainability. Both of these phenomena often stretch beyond the walls of a single organization and demand complex and holistic solutions. My research ultimately aims at developing thought leadership that can influence the practice of management across the supply chain.

From a methodological perspective I have an inclination for empirical and qualitative research. In particular I am interested in the use of the case study method to identify regularities that can be generalized into theories.

Over the past ten years I have been involved in 13 research projects attracting funding in excess of £7 million. During this period I have moved from being a researcher on a project to a co-investigator and lead investigator. Below is brief description of the tenders I've been directly involved:

- In May 2012, jointly with EFPF and AEA, we won a tender for Defra to investigate competitiveness in Cereals supply chains in the UK. The project is was worth £ 54,000.
- In August 2011 I became Director of the Executive Procurement Network (EPN), a research club, which undertakes targeted research projects for industry. The EPN attracts around £100,000 per annum.
- In 2011, jointly with Professor Alan Harrison and Dr Denyse Julien at Cranfield and industrial support from DHL and EFPF, we secured funding from the European Union to investigate "Sustainable Logistics". The project, with a budget exceeding €6.8 million was awarded in January 2012 and kicked off in May 2012. I was directly involved in writing the proposal and currently I act as co-investigator.
- In 2010 I helped to secure a project for Defra into the sustainability of changing diets in the UK, worth around £200,000. In this project I was co-investigator responsible for all the management aspects of the research and delivering one of the three work packages.

- In 2009 I was involved in a successful bid for WRAP amounting to £140,000. I was co-investigator responsible for the process mapping and analysis components of the research.
- In 2008 I secured a total of £125,000 funding from Defra and Wrap in two separate projects looking into the problem of waste generation in food supply chains. In the first project I acted as principal investigator leading a team of researchers in the second I was a co-investigator.
- In 2007 I was responsible for securing funding for £10,500 from IGD for the development of a best practice report on Supply Chain Collaboration and an additional €10,000 to look at RFID in the Italian fashion industry. In both projects I was principal investigator.
- In 2006, with the support of Prof. Martin Christopher, I prepared a proposal for the Department for Transport (DfT) on a project researching the environmental impact of global sourcing, which attracted funding for £120,000. I was principal investigator for this project, leading a team of 3 researchers.
- In 2005, jointly with Dr Mark Johnson, we secured £27,500 funding and delivered a project for Atos Consulting looking at best practice in Physical Asset Management. I acted as co-investigator responsible for 50% of the deliverables of the project.
- From 2004 to 2005 I was the main researcher from Cranfield on the “Cereals Value Chain” project. A joint project between Cranfield, Cardiff University and the Food Chain Centre (FCC/IGD), funded by Defra and the HGCA (£350,000).
- From 2001 to 2004 I was the main researcher from Warwick on the “Supply Chain Cost Effectiveness and Swift Service” (SUCCESS) project. A three-year joint project between Cranfield, Warwick University and the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, funded by the EPSRC (£750,000).

Teaching and Learning

I have been involved in teaching and learning since 1998 when I started my doctorate and my experience has focused mainly on post-graduate and executive students. I am currently course director for the Cranfield/CIPS “Leading Procurement Strategy” open programme and I’m involved in courses on Cranfield’s MSc in Logistics and Supply Chain Management (Supply Chain Concepts; Manufacturing and Operations Management; Sustainability) and MBA (Sustainably Business Elective) as well as several executive programs. I also teach in programs at Warwick University (UK), University of Rome (Italy), University of Pisa Santa Anna (Italy), University of Oviedo (Spain) and The European Institute for Purchasing Management (EIPM – MBA; France), Tsinghua University (China) and the University of North Carolina (Chapel-Hill). I have facilitated online courses on Operations Management and Project Management as part of Warwick Business School (UK) distance learning MBA.

Course Design

I have been involved in designing, re-designing and facilitating the following courses:

- Negotiation and Contract Management (Cranfield SoM – since 2014)
- Procurement Leaders Programme / Leading Procurement Strategy (CIPS/Cranfield School of Management – 3 day Open Programme started in 2012): I am responsible for this program aimed at senior procurement executives. The program is co-developed and delivered with CIPS.
- Supply Chain Concepts (Cranfield SoM – since 2012): Jointly with Dr Heather Skipworth I developed and delivered this introductory course to supply chain management for the Executive MSc in Logistics and Supply Chain Management.
- Sustainable Supply Chain Management (Cranfield SoM - since 2010): Jointly with Dr Michael Bernon I developed and delivered this course for the MSc in Logistics and Supply Chain Management.

- Manufacturing and Operations Management (Cranfield SoM – since 2011): Jointly with Dr Michael Bernon I developed and delivered this course for the MSc in Logistics and Supply Chain Management.
- Food Supply Management (Cranfield Health – 2008- to date): Developed and delivered a one week module for the Food Chains Systems MSc.
- Coca-Cola Supply Chain University (Cranfield - Customized executive program - 2008-09): Responsible for the organization and delivery of the supply chain toolbox elements of the course (2.5 days per course).
- Supply Chain Toolbox (Cranfield SOM): I was course director for this open program during 2008-2009.
- Strategic Supply Chain Management (Durham MBA - since 2005): Designed and developed this elective module which is delivered to both executive and full time MBA candidates.
- Supply Chain Management & Operations Management (Copenhagen Business School – Executive and Full-time MBA – Since 2005): I designed this course jointly with Dr Andrew White from Said Business School and Mike Bernon from Cranfield, and have been delivering it on a yearly basis since 2005.
- Supply Chain Management (BAE Systems program at Warwick - 2004): Responsible for the re-design, organization and delivery of this module.
- Production and Materials Control module (Warwick – WMG - 2003): Responsible for arranging speakers and coordinating the running of the module, in addition to delivering a number of lectures and tutorials.

Supervision and Tutoring

Doctoral Supervision

I have supervised 2 PhD candidates to completion and I am currently supervising another three candidates (one PhD and two DBAs). The following table shows project titles and expected completion dates:

Period	Project Title / Topic	Degree	Expected completion
09/14 – date	Procurement performance in the German SME sector	DBA	2018
09/14 – date	Emergence and control in the blood supply chain	PhD – Full time	2017
09/14 – date	Managing risk in commodity buying	PhD – Full time	2017
09/10 – date	Political risk and its impact on procurement	DBA	2015/ 2 nd review
09/10 – date	The relationship between information sharing and the development of trust	DBA	2015/ 2 nd review
09/12 – date	Evaluating exist strategies in supply chain relationships	PhD – Full time	2014
09/06 – 13	Agile Supply Partnerships: The paradox of high-involvement and short-term supply relationships in the Macerata-Fermo footwear district	PhD – Part time	Completed 2013
09/05 – 12	An exploration of managers’ openness and relationship transparency in a buyer-supplier relationship	PhD – Part time	Completed 2012

Doctoral Supervision Panels

- Panel Chair for Maria Andrea de Villa (PhD, Cranfield) - Completed
- Panel Member for Phil Greening (PhD, Cranfield) - Completed
- Panel Chair for Chris Leach (PhD, Cranfield)
- Panel Chair of John Carr (DBA, Cranfield)
- Panel Member for Phil Drew (PhD, Cranfield) - Completed
- Panel Member for Sean Bowler (DBA, Cranfield)
- Panel Member for Tahiru Liedong (PhD Cranfield)

Doctoral Examinations

- Internal Examiner for Dr Charles Stephens (PhD Cranfield, 2007)
- External Examiner for Dr Pichawadee Kittipanya-ngam (PhD Cambridge, 2010)
- External Examiner for Cynthia Montaudon (PhD Lincoln, 2012)
- External Examiner for Xin Wang (PhD Warwick, 2012)
- External Examiner for Keith Bell (DBA Durham, 2013)
- External Examiner for James Scott (PhD Aston, 2013)

Masters Level Supervision

I have supervised over 30 MSc students in various programs including MSc in Logistics (Cranfield), MSc in Strategic Marketing (Cranfield), MSc in Supply Engineering and Logistics (Warwick), MSc in Engineering Business Management (Warwick), and MSc in Electronic Business Management (Warwick). A complete list of project titles is available upon request.

Personal tutoring

- From 2001 through to 2004 I acted as personal tutor for MSc students in Supply Engineering and Logistics at Warwick University. This is a pastoral care role aimed at supporting students during the degree, helping them with any problems that arise during the year.
- From September 2011 onwards I have been personal tutor to 5-6 Masters students per year.

Professional Services

Editorial Boards and Review Activities

- Member of the editorial board of the International Journal of Physical Distribution and Logistics Management (from 2015 onwards)
- Special Issue Editor, International Journal of Physical Distribution and Logistics Management: Special issue on Retail Logistics, (currently on call for papers)
- Special Issue Editor, Journal of Operations Management: Special issue on Product Safety and Security in the Global Supply Chain (2011)
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Journal of Operations Management, since 2010
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, International Journal of Production and Operations Management, since 2014
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Journal of Product Innovation Management, since 2013
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, International Journal of Physical Distribution and Logistics Management, since 2009
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Journal of Supply Chain Management, since 2012
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Supply Chain Management an International Journal, since 2010
- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Production Planning and Control, since 2009

Responsibilities at Professional Organizations

- Chair at the CIPS Best in Procurement Conference (Cranfield, 2013; Aston, 2014)
- Co-chair at the CPO event (London, 2013).
- Chair of the Procurement and supply chain track at the European Academy of Management Conference [EURAM] (2012 and 2013)
- Panel member of the Procurement and supply chain track at the European Academy of Management Conference [EURAM] (2010 and 2011)
