During the International Coaching Week 2019 (April 29 – May 5), the International Coach Federation (ICF) invites all the people and world-wide organizations to participate to the “Experience Coaching”, an initiative started in 1999 by Coach ICF Jerri N. Udelson, MCC.

The International Coaching Week has the goal to spread out the value created by the Coach IF and recognize results and benefits of the coaching process.

ICF Italia and the Professional Coach Community welcome to the global week of the Coaching Professional Science and invites you to the event:

LEADER COACH
Achieving Coach’s skills to become a Leader.

May 02, 2019
from 11 am to 2 pm, Sala del Consiglio, Business Administration and Economics, Tor Vergata, University of Rome

What are the skills of a leader? What are the skills of a coach? Achieving both skills can really unleash your potential to drive and inspire not only yourself, but also all the people you relate with.

Thanks to this lecture, you will learn how to be a leader coach in order to successfully reach your goals and to support others to reach their own objectives.
Come to the lecture and experience yourself as a leader coach!

The event is organized by Michela Mingione, Ph.D., Professor of Marketing, University of Rome Tor Vergata.
Guest Lectures: Melania Mecenate, Coach PCC-ICF, Co-Founder & Executive Partner DISCLOSE and Giuliano Tarditi, Coach PCC-ICF, managing partner PARKER BROWN.

To receive more information about the event, you can check on the website www.coachfederation.it or contact email the International Coaching Week Team: icw@coachfederation.it