Jacksonville, FL (PRWeb) March 12, 2008 -- The AssociationOfVirtualWorlds.com welcomes four new members to its Advisory Board: Dr. Sara de Freitas, Director of Research at the Serious Games Institute at the University of Coventry in the UK; Darius Lahoutifard, CEO, Altadyn, with offices in Paris, France and California; Rahul Dutta, CEO, Trimensions-Metaverse Development, of Gurgaon, India; and Bruno Cerboni, Founder and CEO of Virtual Italian Parks, of Rome, Italy.

"I am thrilled that these four leaders in their fields have agreed to join the Advisory Board of the Association of Virtual Worlds. The Association is truly a global organization and the addition of these four international members to the Advisory Board underscore the global aspect of this new group." says Dave Elchones, Executive Director.

The Association of Virtual Worlds is experiencing rapid growth both in the US and around the world. "It is extremely exciting to see such an enormous global interest in this organization," says Edita Kaye, Founder.

The Association of Virtual Words is a global industry association for the rapidly growing virtual worlds industry. It serves as a resource for those wishing to experiment and explore virtual worlds for work or play. The Association's mission is to educate, network, recruit, and further the membership's collective goals.
