

NOTICE for RIEMBURSEMENT
for the completion of GRE certification 2022/2023 A.Y.

– reserved for students enrolled in MSc. Economics –
(in reference to the resolution from CdD DEF 13/12/2022)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As proposed by Professor Francesco Sobbrío, considering that the Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) are qualifying exams required by international universities for candidates who request admission to doctoral programmes and can be used to improve students' job opportunities, the Department of Economics and Finance of Tor Vergata University of Rome, with the resolution of the Department of Economics dated 13.12.22, has allocated 8 reimbursements of €180,00 each for students who are regularly enrolled in the 2022/2023 academic year in MSc Economics and who pass the GRE exam in the period between June 2022 and October 2023, achieving a score of 150 or higher on the quantitative section. The reimbursement may be requested only once in the specified period. The reimbursements will be paid following the presentation, sent exclusively by email, of the GRE certification, which includes the candidate's name and the score achieved. The chronological order of arrival of these requests will be used to determine which candidates will be taken into consideration. Only the first 8 candidates who achieve a score of at least 150 or higher on the quantitative section within the specific period of reference will be reimbursed.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Students are eligible to present a reimbursement request if they meet the following selection criteria:

- a) They are regularly enrolled in the 2022/2023 academic year in MSc Economics as first or second year students;
- b) They have earned GRE certification with a score of at least 150 in the quantitative section within the above-mentioned period of reference.

CASES FOR EXCLUSION

Students who have previously received sanctions following the submission of false declarations made to obtain benefits such as scholarships, or students who have received disciplinary sanctions, will be excluded from the prize referred to in the present announcement.

PRESENTATION OF THE REQUEST FOR REIMBURSEMENT

In order to be considered, students must present a formal request form (Request Form for GRE Reimbursement) between 1 March and 31 December 2023. The form must be completely filled in and signed by the student and sent by email to both of the following email addresses: segreteria@def.uniroma2.it and msc_economics@economia.uniroma2.it, specifying in the object of the message "NAME + SURNAME + GRE reimbursement". The candidate's personal data must be provided under penalty of exclusion. The Department reserves the right to exclude applications which are not sent to both email addresses.

The request form must be sent with the following attachments:

- valid ID and Italian tax ID number (codice fiscale);
- GRE certification including the date of exam, score and student name;
- Privacy policy disclosure, completed and signed.

Rome, January 2023 the 18th

Director, Department of Economics and Finance
Professor Vincenzo Atella