

International Conference

TERRITORIAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT OF TERRITORIAL COHESION IN ITALY AND EUROPE

IL TERRITORIAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT DELLA COESIONE TERRITORIALE IN ITALIA ED IN EUROPA

The International conference “Territorial Impact Assessment of Territorial Cohesion in Italy and Europe” is organized starting from the results of the Italian National Research Project (2017-2019) “Territorial Impact Assessment of the territorial cohesion in Italian regions. Place evidence model for assessing policies devoted to green economy in inner and metropolitan peripheries”. During the two days of Conference, ten Academic Units will illustrate the results of the first and second year of the intensive research activity, which involved more than fifty researchers, national and regional policy makers, stakeholders and practitioners. Theoretical contributions and methodological addresses are collected in a book that will be presented and distributed during the event.
