

PH.D. MANAGEMENT - UNIVERSITY OF ROME 'TOR VERGATA'

The PhD in management is a 3-year full-time programme providing to prepare students to conduct high-profile research in the field of management, at universities, firms and research centres.

The programme is hosted by the Department of Management and Law (DMD) of the University of Rome 'Tor Vergata'. It offers a distinguished faculty, promoting excellence in teaching and research, and a lively and international research environment.

The Programme's structure is composed of three tracks:

- Banking & Finance,
- Business Management & Accounting,
- Public Management & Governance.

Each track has its own Coordinator and focuses on specific research activities, lectures and seminars according to the peculiar research interests covered. Furthermore, these tracks jointly organize a first year intertwined Research Methodology course aimed at developing, since the beginning, an appropriate research design knowledge base for the doctoral students.

During the 3 years, the scientific progress of the doctoral students is constantly monitored through the delivering of activity reports, the checking of the lectures' attendance, and the evaluation of yearly assignments. Presenting at national and international conferences, and/or submitting studies for their potential publication, is also strongly encouraged.
