- Be accompanied by a copy of a valid ID.
- Be accompanied by an official list of exams downloaded from the Delphi online system which illustrates all exams and marks earned by 14 February 2020.

□ Restrictions that will be applied to winners

The assignment of the positions are subject to the achievement of at least 60 CFU at Tor Vergata before the start of lectures at the host University.

The application for participation must be sent by email to both of the following addresses by 10 March 2020, segreteria@def.uniroma2.it and msc_economics@economia.uniroma2.it, specifying the object of the message "Name + Surname - Economics – DOUBLE DEGREE –Application". Candidates who do not follow those indications will be excluded from participation.

The evaluation of the candidates and the selection of winners will be made on the basis of the academic curriculum by calculating the number of credits earned and the weighted average of the marks of all of the exams that are achieved by 14 February 2020 and indicated in the University database. For the purpose of counting the exams and the respective marks, only exams taken at the University of Rome Tor Vergata and exams from international mobility will be considered. Exams from other university careers will not be taken into consideration.

In the event of equal ranking, the younger candidate will be favoured.

The selection committee will be appointed by decree of the Department Director and will be composed of three members including the recording secretary.

Art. 4 – Candidate ranking

The merit ranking will be published on the website of the Department of Economics and Finance (<https://economia.uniroma2.it/def/archivio-selezioni-e-bandi/>).

The publication of the ranking will be valid in all respects as an official communication of the results. There is no other form of communication of the ranking on behalf of the Department of Economics and Finance.

The ranking is expected to be published by 20 March 2020.
