

INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

Research Assistant in the Department of Economics and Finance on the research project: “Waste policies, corruption and fly tipping”

1. Institutional details

- Tutor name and email: Professor Alessio D'Amato
- Economic fields: Environmental economics
- Internship start date (please indicate if flexible or not): flexible
- Full-time/Part-time: indifferent

2. Skills and Experience required

- Languages required: English
- Degree requirement: Enrollment in MSc Economics
- Skills required: Experience in micro-data management, knowledge of basic econometric techniques and Stata-software

3. Job description: “Research Assistant for the Project Waste policies, corruption and fly tipping”

- The objective of this research project is to investigate the relationship between corruption and illegal waste disposal, by providing empirical evidence for UK.
- The intern will be involved in collecting and analyzing data, matching different data sources, as well as in realizing a comprehensive review of the relevant literature.
- The intern will develop the following skills: experience in micro-data management and in empirical investigation based on theory based testable predictions.