

Martina Conticelli (1974) is associate Professor in Public Law at Tor Vergata University, School of Economics, where she is currently teaching Introduction to the legal system, European Administrative Law, European Competition law and Regulation and Global Administrative Law.

She is Director of a Master in Regulation and competition at the School of Economics and she is Director of the Phd program on Teoria dei contratti dei servizi e dei mercati, Tor Vergata.

She graduated cum laude in Administrative Law at La Sapienza University, Rome, in 1998 and got her Ph.D in Administrative Law at the same University in 2003. In 2000 and in 2001, she was Jemolo Fellow at Nuffield College (Oxf. Univ.-Uk).

She is Coordinator of the Tor Vergata Unit (beneficiary) within the CoCEAL project, Principal Investigator G. della Cananea, awarded the ERC grant, 2015-H2020 on The Common Core of European Administrative Laws (2016-)

She took part to the JM network on The Academic Research Network on Agencification of EU Executive Governance is a Jean Monnet Network co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union (2015-). She is member of the European Group of Public Law (EGPL) (2009-) and she seats in the Faculty board of the European Law and Governance School, Eplo, Athens. She was teaching Staff, within the Jean Monnet module 2010-2671, on The European Economic Constitution after the Lisbon Treaty: Undertaking in the new social market economy.

Recent works include participation and procedural requirements in global procedures, and european administrative procedures

Her research interests now focus on Regulatory expropriation, Global and European Administrative Law, Health Care.