

NOTICE of PARTECIPATION
In the study trip to the MONASH UNIVERSITY CAMPUS IN PRATO
2026/2027 academic year
– reserved for students of the MSc European Economy and Business Law –
(rif. Reslution No. 5.8.1 of the Department Council of 15/09/2026)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Following a proposal by Professor Carlo Ciccarelli, and in view of the allocation of university funds amounting to 5,000.00 euros to cover the costs of the EEBL study trip to the Prato campus of Monash University, with a view to developing a project relating to the European economy, global business, public policy and institutional design, the Department of Economics and Finance at the University of Rome "Tor Vergata", by resolution of the Departmental Council dated 15 September 2026, has allocated funds for up to 10 students duly enrolled on the Master's degree program in European Economy and Business Law for the 2026/2027 academic year who will take part in the three-day study trip to Prato, from 30 November to 3 December 2026, accompanied by Prof. Carlo Ciccarelli, to take part in teaching activities held at the Monash University campus.

The funds made available will be used to cover the costs of travel, accommodation, local transport, meals, as well as admission tickets for any museums and cultural visits.

Applicants will be assessed on their attendance at EEBL lectures, their average marks in examinations, and the number of credits they have earned. In the event of a tie, preference will be given to candidates who have taken the final examination in economic history and to those who have received scholarships to attend university courses.

REQUIREMENTS

To apply to take part in the study trip, students must be duly enrolled for the 2026/2027 academic year in the first or second year of the Master's Degree Program in European Economy and Business Law.

CASES OF EXCLUSION

Students who have previously been penalized for submitting false declarations with the aim of obtaining study grants, or who have been subject to disciplinary action, are excluded from the grants referred to in this call for applications.

SUBMISSION of the APPLICATION

Students must submit their application – strictly between September 23, 2026 and September 30, 2026 – using only Annex A, the designated request form for the Monash University Study Trip, which must be signed and completed in full and sent by email to the Departmental Secretariat and the Academic Secretariat at the following addresses: segreteria@def.uniroma2.it and msc@eebl.uniroma2.it. Please state 'FIRST NAME + SURNAME + MONASH' in the subject line.

Personal details must be provided, otherwise the application will be excluded. The Department reserves the right not to consider the application if it is not sent to both of the email addresses provided.

The Application Form must be submitted together with the following documents:

- a valid identity document and Italian tax registration number (codice fiscale);
- the DELPHI certificate detailing the exams taken by September 20, 2026;
- Annex B, the privacy policy, duly completed and signed.
