IMPORTANT INFORMATION

PERMITS FOR ENTRY INTO CHILE

To enter Chile for less than 180 days, a Temporary Stay Permit is required. This permit can be obtained upon arrival at the airport in Santiago, at the International Police station. The permit is issued for a maximum of 90 days and can be renewed for another 90 days (only once). This renewal costs USD $100. MORE DETAILS.

IMPORTANT: Some nationalities require a visa prior to arrival in Chile. For reference, review the following document here.

HOUSING

Universidad Mayor does not provide accommodation. Therefore, students are solely responsible for finding, choosing and paying for their own accommodation.

*Universidad Mayor is exempt from any liability arising from any formal or informal contractual relationship between the student and the respective accommodation provider.

BUDDIES PROGRAMME

All exchange students have the opportunity to participate in the Buddies programme during the academic semester. Through this programme, a UM student welcomes a group of exchange students and accompanies them during their first activities and visits to the campus, showing them around the city and helping them to integrate culturally into the university and the country.

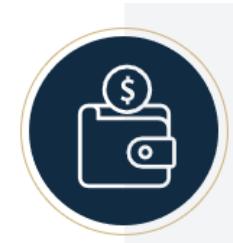

TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRPORT

UM does not offer transportation from the airport to your destination. Students are advised to use the official services provided by Santiago Airport. CONSULT TRANSPORTATION SERVICES.
