

CALL FOR APPLICATION A.Y. 2016-2017
RESERVED TO FIRST YEAR STUDENTS M.Sc. IN FINANCE AND BANKING
DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG

1. Bilateral Agreement

- The University of Rome Tor Vergata and the University of Gothenburg has agree on a Dual Degree Program for MSc in Finance and Banking. According to the agreement, two students of the MSc in Finance and Banking will attend the second year at the School of Business, Economics and Law of the University of Gothenburg, obtaining the dual-title degree.
- The University of Rome Tor Vergata helps with funding of 2500 euros for each selected student to cover travel and subsistence expenses, submitting once come back the receipts and the related expense documents to the International Office, room 551 Rettorato, V floor.

2. Criteria for eligibility:

- Being regularly enrolled in the first year.

3. Selection

The selection of candidates will be based on:

- The performance during the MSc in Finance and Banking, determined by marks' exams and Professors' opinions of the courses attained until the application for the Dual Degree Program.
- The requirement stated on the agreement about the minimum number of ECTS that must be obtained within the start of the courses at the University of Gothenburg (48 ECTS).

Application has to be send to msc_finance@economia.uniroma2.it and in cc to segreteria@def.uniroma2.it, with subject "Finance – Dual Degree Application", attaching the filled request form, a copy of an Identity Document, Curriculum Vitae and transcripts (a self-declaration is fine). Deadline for application is March 3, 2017.