Course Description

The course analyzes the history of Rome and its most important sites and buildings from the Ancient Rome to nowadays, with particular attention to the urban context, architects and master builders, the building techniques and the patrons from the prominent roman families. Emphasizing the direct acquaintance of artifacts, the course adopts the en plein air approach: all the lectures are going to take place outdoors, within the city of Rome, through four thematic itineraries. Each course (36 hours) will focus on one of these itineraries. The aim of the course is to familiarize students with the beauties of the history of Rome, in which every new urban 'layer' doesn't erase the previous one and in which the symbolic and immanent contents constantly compete with the physic appearance of the buildings. The visits to the sites, palaces and churches will open up the stories of the Emperors, Popes, Cardinals, noble families, architects and artists who created "the Aeternal city". To enrich each itinerary the course proposes visits outside Rome (Villa Mondragone near Frascati, Palazzo Chigi in Ariccia, Palazzo Farnese in Caprarola) and meetings with prominent romans artists and architects (Massimo Catalani, Giorgio de Finis, Massimo Alvisi & Junko Kiritomoto etc.)

Teaching Method

20 students is the maximum number for each itinerary, in order to ease the displacements and the visits. There will be few additional charges for the entrance tickets in some of the monuments. Each itinerary will be divided into 7 meetings of 5 hours, 1 meeting per week. The first itinerary will span from October to December 2015.
