

THIRD EDITION WINTER SCHOOL

“Politics and Institutions in Germany and Italy: innovations and common trends”

Rome, 8th – 9th of March 2018

Fachhochschule
für öffentliche Verwaltung
NRW

The University of Applied Sciences for Public Administration and Management of the State of North-Rhine Westphalia and the Bachelor of Arts in Global Governance of the University of Rome Tor Vergata organize the third edition of the Winter School in “Politics and Institutions in Germany and Italy: innovations and common trends”. The programme is reserved to seven-ten students from each University, in the field of Public Law, Local Government and Political Institutions. The aim of the venture is to foster cooperation among students, the knowledge of respective legal and economic institutions, the mutual understanding of the main features of Italian, German and European legal orders and their respective political institutions, and the role both countries play in the world. The Winter School will be held in Rome, the 8th and 9th of March 2018, and will be in English. Each participant will prepare a topic of her/his choice to be presented and which will serve as a start for the discussion of the topic.
