CALL FOR APPLICATION FOR THE ADMISSION TO THE ENGLISH-TAUGHT COURSE OF STUDY IN "GLOBAL GOVERNANCE" ("L-16 CLASS", POLITICAL SCIENCES) OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS AND FINANCE, SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS, UNIVERSITY OF ROME TOR VERGATA

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019 / 2020

Art. 1 –Places on offer and admission requirements

The public call for applications to enter the first year of the English-taught Course of Study in "Global Governance" ("L-16 class", Political Sciences) at the University of Rome Tor Vergata (Department of Economics and Finance) for the academic year (a.y.)2019/2020 is now open, in accordance with art. 2 of law n. 264 of August 2, 1999; a total number of at most 204 places are available, divided as follows:

- 150 places available for Italian citizens, EU citizens and NON-EU citizens legally resident in Italy, in accordance with art. 26 of Law n.189/2002
 - 54 places reserved for NON-EU citizens resident abroad and applying for visa, 4 of which reserved to Chinese students participating to the "Marco Polo" program.
- ⇒ The present call for applications is subject to the requirements laid down in the Decree 987/2016 (and its following amendments) by the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research regarding the accreditation of Courses of Study.

Any Italian citizen, EU citizen and non-EU citizen legally resident in Italy, in accordance with art. 26 of law n. 189/2002, as well as any foreign/international citizen requiring a visa, may participate to the selection process. In order to be admitted to the Course, it is mandatory to hold a five-year high school Diploma issued by Italian institutes, or alternatively an equivalent foreign qualification obtained abroad and valid for the admission to any Italian University (see the attachment 1 and attachment 2).

Moreover, any student – enrolled in the last year of Italian High Schools, or in the last year of non-Italian High Schools issuing an equivalent foreign qualification obtained abroad and valid for the admission to any Italian University – expecting to achieve the High School Diploma in the 2018/2019 school academic year may participate in the selection process.

The application procedure provided for in the present call for applications is also necessary for:

- Students from other universities who intend to apply for transfer to the Course of Study in "Global Governance";
- Students of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" belonging to Courses of Study other than "Global Governance" who intend to apply for inbound transfer to the Course of Study in "Global Governance".

The candidate selection will take place in three calls and the total number of places made available by the Course of Study is divided as follows:

- First call: 30 places (of which 8 places reserved to NON-EU citizens resident abroad and who need to apply for a visa, 1 of which reserved to Chinese students participating to the "Marco Polo" program).
 - ⇒ Students declared eligible for the oral interview but eventually not admitted in the first call may apply again in the second call, presenting a new application to participate in the selection in which they can indicate the additional experiences gained during the period which has elapsed since the first application, as well as the additional grades achieved in the last high school year attended (for students enrolled in the last year of Italian secondary school or in the last year of a non-Italian secondary school that issues a qualification valid for admission at Italian universities);
- Second call: 102 places (of which 27 places reserved to NON-EU citizens resident abroad and who need to apply for a visa, 2 of which reserved to Chinese students participating to the "Marco Polo" program).
 - ⇒ Students declared eligible for the oral interview but eventually not admitted in the second call may apply again in the third call, presenting a new application to participate in the selection in which they can indicate the additional experiences gained during the period which has elapsed since the previous application, as well as the additional grades achieved in the last high school year attended (for students enrolled in the last year of Italian secondary school or in the last year of a non-Italian secondary school that issues a qualification valid for admission at Italian universities);

- Third call: 72 places (of which 19 places reserved to NON- EU citizens resident abroad and who need to apply for a visa, 1 of which reserved to Chinese students participating to the "Marco Polo" program), in addition to places left from the first and second call.

Art.2 – Application procedure

In order to apply, the candidates of the FIRST CALL (in the period between October 18th 2018 and November 15th 2018), candidates of the SECOND CALL (in the period between January 15th 2019 and March 1st 2019) and candidates of the THIRD CALL (in the period from April 1st 2019 and May 15th 2019) must fill the online form on the website of the Course of Study "Global Governance" <http://economia.uniroma2.it/ba/globalgovernance/apply-now/> and upload the following documents:

- Scanned pdf copy of the Passport (or Carta d'Identità for Italian students, if available);
- Personal statement (so called "Declaration of knowledge and aptitude for Global Governance disciplines") in English (pdf format): in no more than 1000 words the candidate (also referring to what specified in his/her curriculum vitae) shall illustrate how the knowledge acquired in his/her personal and educational growth path is consistent with the disciplines of the Global Governance training project, as well as shall show his/her personal aptitude (also referring to his/her school activities) for the disciplines envisaged by the training project and for the challenges posed by global phenomena;
- Documents in support of the personal statement:
 - High school Diploma (if achieved) and transcript of grades obtained in the last High school year attended.
 - Curriculum Vitae (pdf format) written in English.

The candidate must provide a valid email address in order to receive communications regarding the selection procedure, as well as a Skype contact (only for students not residing in the Lazio region) necessary for the interview referred to in article 3 of the present call for applications.

Università degli Studi di Roma "Tor Vergata"

PLEASE NOTE:

In accordance to D.P.R. 445/2000, any Italian citizen, EU citizen and NON-EU citizen legally resident in Italy may self-certify on his/her personal qualities and information that can be verified or certified by Italian public entities (art. 46 and 47 of the D.P.R. 445/2000).

The University of Rome Tor Vergata reserves the right to check the veracity of the statements made, under penalty of exclusion from access to the Course of Study in "Global Governance".

All admitted students with a non-Italian High School Diploma (in accordance with art. 1 of the present call for applications), are required to provide, at the moment of enrolling, the Declaration of Value of the final title (obtained after at least 12 years of education, translated and legalized) issued by the Italian competent authorities – Consulate or Embassy in the country where the degree was completed or the declaration (State of comparability) released by the ENIC-NARIC centre.

- According to Law n. 104 of February 5, 1992, students with disabilities may send an email to the Technical Secretariat of the University Committee regarding the Inclusion of Students with Disabilities and DSA (CARIS) in Via del Politecnico, 1,00133 Rome (new buildings of the Faculty of Engineering, ground floor) at segreteria@caris.uniroma2.it concerning the type of disability (attaching a scanned copy of the available medical documentation), in order to provide them with suitable means for the selection process.
- Candidates suffering for dyslexia (as certified by the Law n. 170/2010) are required to give notice of disability to CARIS with the same modality. For these students, a 30% extra-time will be granted for the oral interview.

Art. 3 - Admission, Evaluation Criteria and Results Communication

For all the calls, the selection of candidates aims at verifying, on the basis of the evaluation of the documents submitted (evaluation of the Personal statement and supporting documents) and on the basis of an oral interview, the adequate preparation of the candidate (pursuant to art. 6, par. 1, of M.D. 270/2004). In particular, to be admitted to the Course of Study in Global Governance, the candidate shall prove the required knowledge and aptitude for the Course disciplines, i.e.:

Università degli Studi di Roma "Tor Vergata"

- a. the knowledge and the ability to argue with clarity and comprehensiveness about the main challenges posed by global phenomena;
- b. the knowledge and the ability to argue with clarity and comprehensiveness about the Global Governance training project, also in relation to the candidate's personal development project.

Following the same procedure, English language knowledge and skills will be verified according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (entry level B2).

The evaluation is carried out on a scale of 0 to 100 total points, divided as follows:

- Up to 50 points: evaluation of the Personal statement and supporting documents. Students that have achieved a minimum score of 20/50 in the evaluation of the submitted documents shall be declared eligible for the interview; students that have not achieved 20/50 might receive a rejection notification before the end of the selection period.
- Up to 50 points: oral interview. During the interview, held in English, the Committee shall evaluate the candidate's ability to understand and speak English and the knowledge required by the Course, i.e. the knowledge and the ability to argue with clarity and comprehensiveness on the main challenges of global phenomena, as well as on the Global Governance project, also in relation to the candidate's personal development project.

The results of the evaluation of the documentation, along with the notification of the date, time and place of the interview, will be announced via email, at the email address provided in the application form, by:

- First call: within December 15th 2018
- Second call: within March 30th 2019
- Third call: within June 15th 2019

The interviews will be held at the Tor Vergata University School of Economics (Via Columbia, 2).

For students who live outside Lazio or for students residing in Lazio which so request, the interview will be conducted via video conference using Skype software. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure the availability of the required hardware (PC, webcam), software and reliable internet connection.

Candidates who do not show up by the deadlines set in the interview calendar will be excluded from the final ranking list.

PLEASE NOTE: The oral interview cannot be repeated; therefore, the students who, in the first or second call, have sustained the oral interview, but who have not been winners, can only improve the score related to the evaluation of the documentation, presenting a new application for selection in the second or third call, with additional experience gained in the period spent and any grades obtained in the last high school year attended (for students enrolled in the last year of Italian secondary school or in the last year of a non-Italian secondary school that issues a qualification valid for admission at Italian universities).

Art. 4 - Committee and Responsible of Procedures

The Admission Committee is appointed by the Rector on the proposal of the Coordinator of the Course, by his own decree. The Officer in charge of the administrative procedures is Mr. Vincenzo Parisi, Head of the Students Secretariat of the School of Economics.

Art. 5 – Ranking

The ranking is drawn up in order of merit according to score, in accordance with art. 3.

Candidates with a score of 70/100 or above will be deemed eligible for the Global Governance program.

The ranking list will be published on the website of the Course of Study (www.globalgovernance.it) by: January 30th 2019 (first call), April 16th 2019 (second call), June 30th 2019 (third call).

The publication of the ranking must be considered as an official communication of the results, no other forms of communication of the results are foreseen.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Admitted candidates must carry out the pre-enrollment under the terms and procedures as per art. 6 below, otherwise they will be deemed to have withdrawn and they will be replaced by the eligible candidates ranked immediately below.
- There is no ranking list sliding for first and second call selection.
- Candidates who did not pass at the end of the first call or the second call of selection may participate in the third call by resubmitting the application following the procedure and the indications referred to in the articles 2 and 3.
- The ranking list only slides for the third selection round if, once the deadline for the pre-enrollment of the admitted students has expired, there are still vacant places. The spots will be assigned to the suitable candidates immediately following the ranking.

Art. 6 – Pre-enrollment

Admitted candidates must use their login credential to enter the "Apply now" section of the course website (<http://economia.uniroma2.it/ba/globalgovernance/apply-now/>) and upload, no later than February 7th 2019 (first call), April 23rd 2019 (second call), and July 8th 2019 (third call), the following documentation:

- Code of Conduct pdf scanned copy, signed at the bottom;
- Receipt of payment of 500 euro as an advance payment which will be refunded, only to enrolled students, decreasing it on the installments of university fees to be paid, or in the case of exemption from paying taxes and university fees, in the form of refund.

This payment will not be reimbursed in case of renounce to the enrollment.

University bank account details at:

<https://economia.uniroma2.it/ba/globalgovernance/admission>.

On the same page, admitted students must notify the Global Governance Secretariat of their intention to request accommodation at CampusX (www.campusxroma.it).

Once these conditions are met, the Global Governance Secretariat will issue a Formal Acceptance Letter signed by the Director of Course of Study.

Please note:

The admitted candidates who have not completed the pre-enrollment procedure in the above-mentioned terms and procedures, it is worth repeating, will be considered renunciative and cannot be enrolled according to the following article 7.

Where available, vacancies for eligible but not admitted students of the third call, will be filled by scrolling the ranking, which will be published on the website www.globalgovernance.it.

Newly admitted students are required to finalize the pre-enrollment within seven days from the notification of the availability of the place on the basis of the scrolling of the ranking.

Art. 7 – Enrollment and payment/validation of tuition fees

The enrolment procedure consists of the fulfillments referred to in point A) and point B) below:

A) Online enrolment, payment of the FIRST INSTALLMENT and payment validation (deadline NOVEMBER 6TH 2019)

Fill in the evaluation questionnaire on the "Quest Test" site: <http://www.quest.uniroma2.it> Keep your questionnaire code (QC) that will be issued by the system (N.B. the QC remains valid for only five days after filling in the questionnaire, after which the questionnaire must be filled in again).

Then:

1. Connect to the Delphi Online Services website:
<https://delphi.uniroma2.it/totem/jsp/index.jsp?language=EN>
2. Select Student Section, Key 2 - Registration;
3. Select the "Start application procedures";
4. - b. Two passport-sized photos identical to the one on the application form.
- c. Copy of a valid identification document.
- d. Copy of the payment receipt (except for those who are totally exempt from the payment of tuition fees).
- e. Part of the document issued after the payment validation. This part of the document is marked as "da consegnare alla Segreteria Studenti" (translation: "to be submitted to the Students Secretariat").

- University students from other Universities or from degree courses of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" who wish to apply for transfer / inbound transfer to the Course of Study referred to in present call for applications must deliver a copy of the document proving the abovementioned request to the Students Secretariat by December 31st, 2019.

IMPORTANT:

- Validating the payment and submitting all the above-mentioned documents to the Students Secretariat is mandatory to finalize the enrolment procedure.

- If the above-mentioned documents are not submitted by the deadlines and according to the procedures laid down by the latter, the enrolment shall be considered as not valid and the vacancies shall be filled up according to procedures and criteria established by the present call for applications.

- In order to be totally exempt from the payment of tuition fees, students with certificated disabilities, equal or higher than 66%, or students with disabilities in accordance with art. 3, paragraph 1 and 3 of Law n.104 of 5th February 1992 must submit appropriate documentation proving the disability, issued by a competent body, to the Technical Secretary of the Committee for the Disabled ("Segreteria Tecnica della Commissione per l'inclusione degli studenti con Disabilità") and DSA (CARIS) in Via del Politecnico, 1, 00133 Rome (Faculty of Engineering).

- More information relating to the amount of the tuition fees, payment modalities and partial or total exemptions will be available on the Student Guide A.Y. 2019/2020, published on the University website web.uniroma2.it

- Transfers e inbound transfers:
University students from other Universities or from other Faculty courses of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" must scan a legible documentation proving the request for inbound transfer (if coming from other Faculty courses of the University of Rome "Tor Vergata") or transfer (if coming from other Universities) and send it, along with the request for a confirmation of receipt, to the following email address: segreteria-studenti@economia.uniroma2.it and global.governance@uniroma2.it within the following dates:

from August 1st 2019 to December 31st 2019.

Università degli Studi di Roma "Tor Vergata"

The Students Secretariat will send, along with a reading confirmation, the additional procedures to be carried out on the Delphi system of the University.

As an alternative, it is possible to submit the above-mentioned documentation proving the request for inbound transfer or transfer during the opening hours of the Students Secretariat (detailed in the present call for applications).

Art. 8 - Candidates with a non-Italian High School Diploma

Candidates holding a non-Italian High School Diploma can participate in the selection process, but they are subject to confirmation. If admitted to the Course of Global Governance, in addition to following the above-mentioned enrolment procedure, they must submit the documentation required by current regulations available on the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research website: <http://www.studiare-initalia.it/studentistranieri/>.

In case of irregular documentation issued by the student, he/she will be automatically erased from the final official ranking.
