

Academic Year 2020-2021
SPANISH LANGUAGE SYLLABUS
Dr. Magdalena Jiménez Naharro
magdalena.jimenez@uniroma2.it

Course Description

This Spanish course (42 h) aims to achieve a B1 level in line with the competences set out in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Teaching Methodology

Tasks will be set within the framework of a communicative methodology. Meetings with the teacher are aimed at activating the language that is required to communicate at this level and at monitoring progress. Students must undertake the activities presented in the class manual and other activities (as directed by the teacher through the Edmodo platform) independently in order to consolidate the required linguistic and socio-cultural content.

Overview of the Course

B1 Independent user	Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
Language Functions	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Description of people: physique and character.✓ Manifest moods and feelings.✓ Describe cities, geography and climate.✓ Compare places, people and customs.✓ Talk about free time activities.✓ Give your opinion. Show agreement and disagreement.✓ Describe and narrate events and situations from the past.✓ Talk about the future: schedule, foresee.✓ Make hypotheses.✓ Advise and assess possibilities.✓ Give instructions and orders.✓ Give permission / prohibit.✓ Request and provide information.✓ Express obligation.✓ Relay what others have said (report speech connected to the present).
Grammatical Content	For a detailed list of the grammatical contents required at level B1, you can consult the Plan Curricular of the Instituto Cervantes.
Lexical Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Lexicon referring to knowledge frames of everyday life: home, work, university, food, free time and nature, physical and character descriptions, etc.✓ General abstract vocabulary to talk about current issues such as climate change, emigration, politics, interculturality ... or of personal interest such as art, cinema, sports or music, as well as to talk about feelings and emotions.

Textbook and Materials

Rosales, F. et al. Campus Sur. Curso intensivo de español, ed. Difusión. Libro del alumno A1-B1 (not the exercise work book). ISBN: 9788418032448

AAVV, Gramática básica del estudiante de español, Edición revisada y ampliada (with solutions), ed. Difusión. ISBN 978-8484437260

Assessment

Students will be assessed through a final written and oral exam (60%). The written test is designed to evaluate the skills required by the programme with grammar, vocabulary, reading comprehension and listening comprehension exercises in multiple-choice mode. Other exercises involve linguistic completion and transformation based on the linguistic content of the course. In addition, a written production activity is envisaged starting from a given text or an explicitly formulated request.

This intensive course uses continuous assessment (40%). Students are asked to consolidate linguistic/cultural content independently (using the supplementary class material) and take an active part in class activities. Their final mark will be a combination of marks for independent learning and marks for participation in class activities.

Students who do not participate actively in the course will be asked to prepare extra reading material.

Non-attending students will be required to take the final written and oral exam with an additional written element based on further readings that will be assigned to them. Their mark will be based exclusively on this final exam.

Students who have attended less than 80% of classes will be considered non-attending students and, as such, will be required to take the final exam.

Office hours

Contact email address:

Appointments with the professor must be made before or after the class, or by email.

NOTE:

Note that attendance is required from the very first lesson and you need to attend at least 80% of the course to be considered an attending student.
