

Lorenzo is the Director of Corporate Development & HR at Sibylla Biotech, where he works in the executive team on strategy, operations, and scaling the company. He previously worked at CDP Venture Capital Evolution Fund, focusing on investing in deep tech technologies and ecosystem development at a European level.

Alongside his institutional experience, Lorenzo was part of the founding team of Lumen Ventures SIS, focusing on early-stage venture investing, startup evaluations, and venture building dynamics. He is also co-founder and ex-COO of The Basket Srl, where he led operations, product and partnerships before his Exit.

His professional focus sits at the intersection of entrepreneurship, venture capital, and execution, with a strong emphasis on turning complex technologies into scalable and sustainable businesses. Outside of work, he is a Paralympic water polo champion, being part of Italy's national team.