ARE YOU READY TO STEP ONTO THE GLOBAL STAGE?

Welcome to GMUN, the official Global Governance Model United Nations. But what does that actually mean? During the simulation, you won't just be a student: you will step into the shoes of an international diplomat. You will be assigned a country, debate global crises in English, negotiate with allies, and draft real UN resolutions. No prior experience is needed, just the willingness to test your public speaking, challenge your limits, and experience the thrill of real diplomatic negotiations.

GMUN is open to all universities, let's debate together and negotiate the future!

(GMUN is a free opportunity for all participants, supported by the University of Tor Vergata)

DIPLOMATIC TOOLKIT - Every delegate will be provided with:

 The Background Guide: An official manual containing all the geopolitical insights and rules you need to prepare like a pro.

 Your Official Placard: Your country's name tent. It will be your ultimate diplomatic tool to shape the debate, and a tangible souvenir to take home when it's all over!

THE TRAINING SESSION:

 Location: Room S6, Tor Vergata University

 Date: Wednesday, October 2nd |  14:00 – 18:00

 Committee: UNICEF

 Topic: Protecting children and young people in digital spaces: balancing online safety, privacy and access.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Make your voice heard! At the end of the simulation, the Board will award certificates for Honorable Mentions and the prestigious Best Delegate Prize: An exclusive opportunity to participate as a speaker in the official Global Governance Symposium!

THE OFFICIAL SIMULATION:

 Location: Room S6, Tor Vergata University

 Dates: Friday, October 16 (14:00 – 18:00) & Saturday, October 17 (09:30 – 18:30)

 Committee: SOCHUM

 Topic: Addressing the Humanitarian Challenges and Legal Protection of Migrants and Refugees in Modern Crises.
