

Instructions. The completed Annual Report must be submitted by the Ph.D. candidate to the Supervisor by September 15. The Supervisor is requested to review the report, complete the Supervisor's Assessment section, and submit the signed report to the Ph.D. Office at admin@phdef.uniroma2.it by September 30. The Annual Report will be used by the Doctoral Board to assess the candidate's progress and determine admission to the next academic year of the Ph.D. program.

General information

Student

Cycle

Academic year

Research interests

JEL codes (two digits)

ORCID code (if any)

Supervisor

Co-supervisor (if any)

Ph.D. thesis

Please provide the title of your Ph.D. thesis, even if it is still provisional.

Please provide a short description of paper 1.

Please provide a short description of paper 2.

Please provide a short description of paper 3.

Other research activities

Please provide a concise description of your other research activities during the year.

Publications

Please list articles, working papers, book chapters, monographs, preprints, or other research outputs.

Title	Outlet

Participation in conferences, workshops, and training activities

Please report your participation to conferences, workshops, schools, and other activities.

Date	Title of activity	Institution / Location

Visiting, research and working experiences at other institutions

Please report all visiting periods, research stays (including periods abroad), and relevant work experiences, indicating the dates, host institution, and location.

From	To	University / Institution	Location

Teaching activities

Please include teaching activity carried out at university level.

Course Name	University / Institution	Hours

Other relevant information and comments

Please add any further information relevant to your Ph.D. activities and progress.

Please provide any additional comments or suggestions regarding the Ph.D. program, including its organization, academic activities, or any aspects that could be improved.

Please provide any additional information about your preferred placement, including your interest in academia or non-academic positions, in Italy or abroad.

Declaration and signature

I confirm that the information provided in this annual report is accurate and complete.

Student

Date

Supervisor's assessment

The Ph.D. supervisor is kindly requested to provide an overall assessment of the candidate's research activity during the reporting period, including research progress, scientific achievements, level of independence, participation in academic activities, and any recommendations or comments.

Supervisor

Date